THE BRAVE LIFE SAVERS.

A BILL TO PENSION THEM TO COME BEFORE CONGRESS.

Congressmen Bliss, Buchanan and Cox Working Hard to Secure Its Passage. General Sheridan's Will Probated in Washington—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Congressman Bliss, chairman of the committee on pensions of the house, will next week report a bill to extend the pension laws to the life saving service.

While the committee was not unanimous in support of the bill there was no factional opposition and it is not likely that any will be developed when the subject comes up for debate on the floor of the house. Mr. Bliss says that he does not think that the bill will pass at this session, but he does think that it will go through before the close of the present congress. The opposition will doubtless come from those members who see in legislation of this character a bugaboo of civil pensions.

There are a great many members of the house who are so extremely narrow between the eyes that they are absolutely unable to see any reason why men men who risk their lives to save others should be on the same footing, so far as the bounty of the government is concerned, with that other class of servants of the nation who risk their lives in destroying others when danger threatens. The present bill was introduced by Mr. Buchanan, of New Jersey.

It had been strenuously urged by Sunset Cox and Mr. Bliss has been persistent in pressing upon members of his committee the importance of attending the meetings in order that the subject might receive the attention it deserves. When the bill becomes a law, as it will certainly some day, these three gentlemen will be entitled to more credit for its enactment than any others in the house.

Sheridan's Will.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The petition of those named by Gen. Sheridan to administer on his estate was filed Monday. It sets forth that he leaves surviving him his widow and as heirs and next of kin the following minor children: Mary, Irene, Louise and Philip Henry Sheridan, aged respectively twelve, eleven, eleven and seven.

His personal estate consisted of money, $2,721; stocks, etc., $8,000; pictures, swords and relics, $5,000; furniture, $3,000; horses and carriage, $600, all of which is in the District of Columbia. The furniture in the house at Nonquitt is not worth more than $500. The petition concludes by asking for letters.

Michael V. Sheridan made affidavit that he is well acquainted with the affairs of the deceased, and that to the best of his information and belief his indebtedness did not exceed $1,200, due on account of the purchase of his house at Nonquitt.

Letters testamentary were ordered to issue by Judge Merrick, and the executors qualified, giving bond in the sum of $2,500.

"It Will Be a Bill As Is a Bill."

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Senator Jones, of Nevada, said Monday it would probably be two or three weeks before the senate tariff bill would be ready to be submitted to the full committee on financial. "But then," said the senator, "it will be a bill as is a bill."

As to the opinion expressed by some that as soon as the senate bill got on the calendar, or shortly thereafter, the subject will be postponed till next session and congress adjourn, Senator Jones does not believe anything of the kind will happen.

He has no doubt the bill will be debated at length and pushed to a final vote. When congress will adjourn he is unable to say. But he is of the opinion that the Republicans can conduct their campaign from Washington as well as by stamping all over the country.

The Choctaw Claims Case.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—In the Choctaw claims case Monday counsel for Mr. McKee asked an extension of time for filing an appeal bond of $150,000. He said that Mr. McKee was away from the city on necessary business and would not return until September, and that his address was not known. The court denied the motion for an extension. Mr. McKee, it will be remembered, was ordered to pay $136,500 into court, but when the officers of the court looked for him after the decision was rendered he had disappeared.

President Cleveland's Duty.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—"The only two general before Sheridan who died in command of United States army," says Representative Wheeler, "were Washington, who bad come out of his retirement and accepted command a second time, and Gen. Brown, who died in 1828. Sheridan is the third general whose death occurred when commander of the army. It has been the duty of the president of the United States to announce it to congress."

Schofield Placed in Command.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—The president has issued an order assigning Maj. Gen. Schofield to the command of the army of the United States.

From Church to Jail.

SONERSET, Ky., Aug. 15.—Last Sunday as Andy and Alexander Hamlin were seated in church at Cumberland Falls, Officers L. M. Vestal and Henry and Van Warman approached and arrested Andy on a warrant sworn out by Miss Ida Warman for seduction. On their way to the jail they were attacked by a crowd of rescuers headed by Alexander Hamlin. Shots were exchanged, both of the Warman boys were killed and Constable Vesta, and Andy Hamlin was seriously wounded. Much trouble is expected.

The Logan Mortuary Chapel.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The Herald's Washington correspondent says: Mrs. Logan has been greatly annoyed by the circulation of the report that the mortuary chapel which is being erected for the temporary keeping of Gen. Logan's remains was to cost $60,000. Mrs. Logan writes from Youngstown that the correct figures are about $4,000.

The Petroleum Got There.

HOPKINSVILLE, Ky., Aug. 15.—At Hernon, on the county line, Charley Fleming, a notorious desperado, was stabbed to death this morning by W. S. Duncan, a young farmer. Duncan was at the house of Fleming's divorced wife making arrangements to board his child when Fleming came in and attacked him.

CHICAGO, Aug. 15.—The stream of crude petroleum which was started from Lima, O., three weeks ago to fill the two great tanks at South Chicago, began pouring into the reservoirs shortly after midnight this morning. The oil is now flowing at the rate of 8,000 barrels or 336,000 gallons a day. Each tank has a capacity of 35,000 barrels.

WORK OF THE FIRE FIEND.

CONVENT OF THE SACRED HEART, IN NEW YORK, BURNED.

Its Position on a High Hill Handicaps the Work of the Firemen—Loss $400,000—No Lives Lost—Fires at Peoria, Illinois; Stanton, Iowa, and Elsewhere.

NEW YORK, Aug. 15.—The greater portion of the immense building known as the Convent of the Sacred Heart is in ruins. The fire broke out at 8 o'clock Monday night and swept everything before it. The total loss cannot fall short of $400,000, and the property was insured for $200,000. The cause of the heavy loss was due, not to any neglect of the fire department, but to the fact that water could not be obtained. The nearest hydrant was two blocks away, down a steep hill.

The buildings were on a high hill and considerable time elapsed before hose could be laid. Even then the requisite force could not be obtained. In the meantime the main building had become a seething furnace. The building occupied land two blocks long and one in depth. The elder one was erected in 1842 and contained lecture rooms, the chapel and dormitories, the parish school, a free school, music hall—all were destroyed, including forty pianos and the valuable library. Thousands of dollars worth of vestments were burned.

Mother Duffy, the treasurer, was too much excited to give any account of the origin of the fire. All the inmates of the building are safe, so far as known. They were cared for at Manhattan college.

By 2 o'clock in the morning all the walls had fallen in except the chapel, and that went down soon after. It is said that the convent will not be again erected in the same place, but further up town.

Two Children Burned to Death.

SUMMIT, N. J., Aug. 15.—At 7 o'clock a. m. one of the camp cottages at Mount Labor, Denville, N. J., burned to the ground and two children were burned to death. The cottage belonged to the Rev. McCuskie, a Baptist minister of Newark, N. J., who with his wife and five children were occupying the cottage during the camping season.

A servant started the fire with kerosene, which exploded and almost immediately the house was in flames.

Mr. McCuskie was away from home at the time, and Mrs. McCuskie, with her children, were in bed asleep. The servant gave the alarm, and Mrs. McCuskie sprang out of bed and attempted to rescue her children. They were all asleep, and she was forced to carry them out one by one. She succeeded in getting three of them out, but in doing so she almost lost her own life. She was badly burned, but still she tried to get the other two out.

She was powerless, however, as the flames drove her back, the two little ones, aged four and two years respectively, perished in the fire. The neighbors could do nothing but help get things out of the house, as there was no means of extinguishing the flames. Mrs. McCuskie is almost crazed with grief and a gloom has fallen over the entire camp.

A $150,000 Blaze at Peoria, Illinois.

PEORIA, Ill., Aug. 15.—Shortly before 1 o'clock Monday night fire was discovered in the four-story brick block on South Washington street, occupied by Martin & Co., as an agricultural implement warehouse. A general alarm was sent in. The fire was on the third floor and made rapid headway. Efforts were made to save the four-story block adjoining it, owned and occupied by Kingman & Co., but this proved of no avail, both of the buildings being in ruins at 3 o'clock, when the fire was under control. Nothing was saved of either block. The buildings each cost $25,000 and the total loss is $150,000 with an insurance of about $125,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

At La Salle, Illinois.

LA SALLE, Ill., Aug. 15.—Fire in the drug and notion store of J. E. Malone, in this city, Monday morning, destroyed property to the amount of $15,000. Malone's loss is $11,000, with $5,000 insurance. The building was damaged to the extent of $2,000, fully insured. The Misses Cady, milliners, on the second floor, and Gulkman Brothers, clothiers, adjoining, sustained losses of about $1,000 each, principally from water and smoke. Both firms were insured. The fire originated from the upsetting of a lamp.

At Stanton, Iowa.

DES MOINES, Iowa, Aug. 15.—Fire Monday at Stanton, Montgomery county, destroyed a large part of the business portion of the town. The principal losers are C. W. Swanson & Company, general stock of merchandise. Loss on building and goods, $20,000; insurance $6,000. Walling Brothers, grocers, $3,000, insured $2,500, and L. Loofstedt, saddlery, $1,000. The postoffice mails and office fixtures were burned.

At Mitchell, Dakota.

MICHELL, Dak., Aug. 15.—The extensive pork packing house of Joseph Roster, formerly doing business on State street, Chicago, was entirely consumed by fire Monday.

The loss on building was $11,000, and on stock between $2,000 and $3,000. The insurance amounts to $9,000.

Fatal Result of Carelessness.

VAN Wert, O., Aug. 15.—Robert McIntosh, a prominent citizen of this place, was killed in front of the passenger station of the Fort Wayne road. He absently walked on the track while the local freight train was switching some cars, and was run over by one. It stopped on his body, and had to be raised by jacks, which took nearly twenty minutes. Both legs and one arm were crushed, and he was injured internally. He lived two hours. He leaves a wife and family, and was sixty-five years of age.

Tribute to Congressman Scott.

SHARON, Penn., Aug. 15.—A few weeks ago the cornerstone of the Presbyterian church at Pulasky was laid. Among other things which it contained was Hon. W. L. Scott's speech on the Mills hill. A letter has been received acknowledging the compliment and promising on his return home to send a contribution to the building fund.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District: I beg leave to submit to you my name in connection with the Democratic nomination for Congress from this district. I have no desire to urge over these of any other man the Democratic nomination, and I am content with some degree of timidity. I hope to make the primary contest in such a manner as not to create dissension or division in the ranks of the party, and whether I lose or win the nomination, I propose to remain the same undivided Democrat I have always been. Respectfully, G. R. KELLAR. Carlisle, Ky., July 17, 1888.

The Mills Bill—What it Means.

We have now in the United States, according to the last report of the Secretary of the Treasury, $1,900,000,000 in gold, silver and paper. Of this amount, not including the stock of bullion on hand, there is securely locked up and lying idle in the vaults of the Treasury the sum of $600,000,000, or nearly one-third of the entire circulating medium of the country. After the Government shall have paid all the demands that can possibly come against it there will still remain of this sum $129,000,000 which represents the amount wrung from the people by excessive and unjust taxation.

But the trouble does not end here. Under the present high tariff the money collected by the Government from the people over and above the amount needed for necessary expenditures is more than $9,000,000 a month. To take from them this large excess not required for any necessary and just use, even if done under laws of taxation that were just and equitable, it would be vicious and hurtful to do it, but, when it is remembered that this money is not collected from taxes levied on lands and houses, gold and silver, bonds and stocks, but upon the products of labor, upon the articles necessary to sustain life; when it is remembered that the burden falls heaviest upon those least able to bear it and that the amount exacted by the law is so much taken from the annual supply that must satisfy the necessary wants of life and that the sum thus taken is equal to $47.10 on every $100 of taxed articles, it is enough to startle the country and arouse it to action.

And still this is not all of the evil consequences that grow out of excessive and unjust taxation. The vast sum of money taken from the legitimate channels of business and piled away in the Treasury vaults is constantly lowering the price of the products of labor not protected against competition and while increasing the demands of the tax gatherer decreases the power of the tax-payer to comply with these unjust exactions. The amount of money actually in circulation fixes the price of these commodities, as everybody knows, and when circulation is contracted, prices fall, property shrinks in value and mortgages increase, and the struggle for existence becomes harder day by day. The rich find their fortunes improved while the poorer citizen, who must live by his daily toil, finds himself anxiously inquiring how he is to obtain employment and support for himself and those dependent upon him. By diverting the money of the country from the regular channels of circulation, consumption is necessarily arrested, because there is little left to buy with, and when there is diminished demand production decreases in the same proportion. Then employment is restricted, laborers are reduced and discharged and suffering, distress and discontent are seen on every hand.

How does the laboring man and his dependent family get along under this condition of things? If he has anything saved at all it is small in amount and soon gone. He hunts employment everywhere to find instead hunger confronting him and his distressed family at every corner. That is the condition of the American laborer to-day. With one hundred and twenty-nine millions piled up in the Treasury and increasing at the rate of nine millions a month how long will it be before stagnation and dearth will follow and bankruptcy and ruin be upon the people?

The country is in a perilous situation. The President in his message aptly defined the situation when he said "it is not a question of theory, but a question of condition that confronts the country." The Democrats have made an honest effort to relieve this condition of affairs. They have passed in the House of Representatives a bill which will lessen the inflow of money into the public Treasury and permit the excess to remain where it rightfully belongs, in the pockets of the people. By the law now in force the average rate of taxation on dutiable goods imported is $47.10 on every $100 worth. The bill passed by the House when reported by the Committee on Ways and Means reduced the average rate from $47.10 to $40. But the amendments subsequently adopted in the Committee of the Whole have restored to the dutiable list many articles which were on the free list and raised the duty on other articles so that the average rate of duty when the bill passed the House was $42.49 on every $100 worth imported. This is $4.61 reduction on every $100 worth of goods imported, a reduction that is both small and harmless.

In another article we will give the principals of this Democratic measure so important to the interests of sixty million people, and we hope to be able to make its provisions so plain that there will be no excuse for those who read the BULLETIN not to understand precisely what the Democratic policy is.

Says the Courier-Journal: "Mason County is one of the few in Kentucky which has a Republican newspaper. The great majority of 1,182 which was cast for the Democratic ticket there last week was convincing proof that discussing Republican principles does not strengthen them. The Maysville Republican has been wholly unable to pull any protected wool over the eyes of the voters in Mason."

The Skeena River Indians.

VICTORIA, B. C., Aug. 15.—Late reports from the Skeena Indians difficulty on the Skeena river, are reassuring. A man who left Hazelton recently denies the sensational story sent abroad to the effect that the Kitwancools were besieging the whites in the Hudson Bay fort there. Every night since the Indians became hostile a man has been on guard and all times every gun on the premises has been kept loaded. No violence has, however, been offered. The only danger that has threatened has been exhaustion of the supplies. Provisions are now being forwarded from Fort Esquimalt, where Battery C is stationed. Green, the constable who killed Kitwancool Jim while trying to capture him, and was placed under arrest, will be called upon to answer for the offense, if it was an offense, at Hazelton. His arrest had a salutary effect upon the Indians.

The type was James Purves, aged nineteen, and it is supposed that he accidentally fell from a veranda which runs along the third story, and was caught in his fall, where he hung until life was extinct.

GERMANTON, O., Aug. 15.—About half past 6 o'clock Monday evening as Mr. Valentine Cotterman was coming to town with a couple of young ladies in a buggy, his horse became frightened and ran away, throwing Mr. Cotterman out and injuring him so severely that he died within thirty minutes.

Commercial correspondence and legal evidence were read to the operators, and five minutes given to each. Miss Orr, of New York, won the gold medal; Mr. McGuveran the silver medal. Out of a possible 6,000 points Miss Orr made 4,735.

Robert N. Taylor, M. D.

The County of Lewis never had a more distinguished citizen than Dr. Robert N. Taylor, who died at his residence in Toluca, on Monday last after a brief illness of five days. Dr. Taylor was a man of peculiarly high gifts and attainments. He was an honored graduate of a Louisville school, where in addition to the facilities of a regular course, he enjoyed special advantages for professional and scientific study, under the personal supervision and instruction of one of the most accomplished physicians of that city. Upon Dr. Taylor's return to Eastern Kentucky he settled to the practice of his profession in Toluca, and established at once a reputation as a skillful, conscientious, energetic and industrious practitioner of the medical art. His moral standards were high; his convictions strong, and his mental faculties vigorous and well-trained. His culture took a wide range, and was not only varied, but profound. He wrote with singular facility and grace; he touched no topic which he did not adorn; and his capacity for sustained intellectual effort was remarkable in a man of his highly sensitive organization and delicate physique. His exceptional gifts and acquirements had obtained a wide and flattering recognition in the scientific world, and had secured for him, but a few weeks before his death, the distinction of membership in the "American Association for the Advancement of Science." But no passing tribute can do justice to the merits of this brilliant, charming and accomplished young man. He was an ornament to his profession and a distinction to his native State.

MASON COUNTY TEACHERS.

Second Day's Proceedings of the Institute Now in Session.

The institute was called to order yesterday morning at 9 o'clock by Superintendent Galbraith. After music and prayer the first subject on the programme, "Fractions," was discussed by Mr. Kiser. He clearly demonstrated his ability to present this subject to his pupils. He was followed by Messrs. Hixson, Chandler and McGohn.

"Sense Training, Value of Perceptives" was ably handled by Professor Roark. He claimed that the mental faculties of the child grow through his senses, and advanced forcible and conclusive arguments in favor of the claim. He said: "Teach everything by objects. Find out what the child likes and how he likes it, and then give it to him in that way." His talk was interesting throughout. Superintendent Galbraith followed with some pointed and instructive remarks on the subject.

"Infinitives and Participles" was introduced by Superintendent Galbraith, who was followed by Mr. W. R. Chandler in an able presentation of the subject. A general discussion of the topic was participated in by a number of the teachers.

The subject "Written Reviews versus Examinations" brought out some pointed remarks from Messrs. Wilson, Berry and Thomas. Professor Roark closed the discussion with a "cut and dried" speech which showed that he was not talking at random, but had given the subject much careful thought.

The Query Box furnished many questions on various subjects.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

"Diagramming and Analysis, Methods," was the subject assigned Miss Ella B. Metcalfe. Miss Metcalfe handled the subject with ease and in a manner that demonstrated the advantages of this method of teaching grammar.

"Written Work; in What and How Much?" was the subject of a general discussion participated in by Messrs. Chandler, Wilson, Smith, Berry, Williams and Misses Ida Richards, Ella Wallace and Mary Chambers, all of whom testified to the advantages of written work. The Superintendent urged the teachers to use written work as much as possible.

Professor Roark's remarks on "Diagramming and Analysis;" "Written Work" and "The Newspapers in the Public Schools" were instructive and showed the importance of all.

Mr. Berry followed with some good suggestions on the subject of "Beginnings in Grammar."

Miss Davis favored the audience with a song, Professor Kappes presiding at the organ.

The exercises of the day closed with a sketch of Felix Mendelssohn, by Professor Kappes. It consisted mainly of Professor Kappes' personal reminiscences of this noted artiste and was highly enjoyed by the audience.

The Institute adjourned until this morning at 9 o'clock.

A BATTLE IN AFRICA.

ITALIAN AUXILIARIES DEFEATED BY ABYSSINIANS.

Three Hundred and Fifty of the Former Slashed — The Latter's Loss Not Stated — General Von Moltke Retires From the German Army — Foreign Notes.

ROME, Aug. 15.—The foreign office was started Monday by a dispatch from Massowah saying that an Italian force of 600 Bashi Bazouks, commanded by five Italian officers, had been defeated by the Abyssinian chief Debeb, with a slaughter of 350 and all the officers. It appears that this force was sent out to intercept and defeat Debeb, who was about to raid the Arkirkko district with a force of 670 men. The Italian officers enlisted 200 of the Assaotin tribe on their route to the village of Saganel, where Debeb, who had word of their coming, had entrenched himself.

The Italian force succeeded in carrying the village, where the Assaotin allies attacked the Italian rear, producing a panic among the Bashi Bazouks, who were slaughtered while endeavoring to escape.

This is the Italau story, which fails to explain the reason for Debeb's raid, or why an attempt was made by the Italian commander at Massowah to interfere. The catastrophe occurred far outside the assumed limit of Italian occupation, and seems to have been an aggressive movement on the part of the Italians. It serves to reveal the determination of Italy to make a conquest of Abyssinia, and this can be best effected by aiding one faction against another. Save that of the five officers it is not Italian blood that has been spilled.

The Arran Islanders.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—Mr. Michael Davitt has written a long letter to the Dublin Freeman in regard to the fund for the relief of the distressed inhabitants of the Arran Islands. He severely condemns the present administration of the fund, which he characterizes as a "continuous spoon-feeding," and declares that it has sapped the moral fibre of the people and reduced the majority of them to a state of semi-mendicancy. Instead of doing out assistance in such insignificant quantities as to merely prolong the distress it is intended to relieve, Mr. Davitt advises the necessity of increasing the facilities for employment, to the end of allowing the people to earn the bread they need, rather than to accept in charity only a sufficient quantity to keep body and soul together.

Russia and Germany.

ST. PETERSBURG, Aug. 15.—M. De Giers and Count Herbert Bismarck, representing Russia and Germany, have agreed to appoint a joint commission to consider measures to improve economic relations between the two countries. It is not intended that this agreement shall lead to a complete revision of tariffs.

Just now German manufactured products are excluded from Russia, and Russian agricultural products are excluded from Germany. This does not tend to decrease the hate with which Russians regard the Germans, and the Pau-Slavists rejoice. It seems to be under very discouraging circumstances that William and the czar essay to strengthen their personal friendship.

Von Moltke Superseded.

BERLIN, Aug. 15.—Gen. Von Moltke has been placed on the retired list of the army. Gen. Von Waldersee succeeds him. Emperor William has written Gen. Von Moltke a gracious and affectionate letter nominating him as president of country defense. Count Von Moltke continues on the active list.

The retirement of Field Marshal Gen. Von Moltke removes from active life one of the most conspicuous military figures of the century and deprives the German army of one of its strongest advocates of increased armament and constant watchfulness in the direction of France.

Will Come Over for Information.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Star says that it is profoundly surprised at the steps which Mr. Parnell has taken in bringing suit against it in the Scotch courts. It says that whether his action is seriously meant or only designed to waste time and money, the work of the commission of inquiry will go unaffected.

Organizing an Outbreak.

BUCHAREST, Aug. 15.—M. Hitrovo, Russian minister to Roumania, is credited with organizing a plot to precipitate an outbreak in Albinia in the interest of Russia.

Thousands Thrown Out of Work.

LONDON, Aug. 15.—The Siemens steel works, at Landore, near Swansea, have been suddenly closed and thousands of men have been thrown out of work.

Foreign Notes.

King Leopold, of Belgium, is about to encourage the building of vessels to prey between Belgium and the Congo state.

The London Daily News asserts that King Leopold has declared his readiness to support the German expedition to relieve Emin Bey.

M. Hitrovo, Russian minister to Roumania, is credited with organizing a plot to precipitate an outbreak in Albinia in the interest of Russia.

Second-class medals have been awarded at the Munich art exhibition to the following American artists: Bridgeman, Knight, Pierce and Whistler.

It turned out that Professor Perrin was assailed by Boulangists and used his revolver in self-defense. He did not shoot at Boulangier. He has been released from arrest.

It is stated that Dowager Empress Victoria has been forced to deliver Frederick's papers to Bismarck in order to induce him to open the late emperor's will, upon which she depends for her allowance.

The king of Portugal, in company with Emperor William, attended a military parade in the Lustgarten yesterday. It is reported that the king conferred an hour with Count Herbert Bismarck.

There is a strong and growing feeling among a section of the Irish constabulary against the police orphan fund raised to commemorate the queen's jubilee. This feeling is based upon the alleged fact that although the fund is nominally an accumulation of voluntary offerings, constables who do not subscribe to it are made in various ways to suffer the consequences.

The St. James Gazette surmises that Mr. Parnell when asked to testify before the commission of inquiry will refuse on the ground that if he gave evidence before the commission he would prejudice his suit against the Times by disclosing his case.

Della Moriarty, a passenger on the steamer City of Chicago, which arrived at Queenstown from New York, was arrested for concealing and trying to take aboard a revolver and one hundred pounds of ammunition. The weapon and ammunition belonged to Edward Fitzgerald, another passenger who was also arrested. He had given them to the woman to take aboard under the impression that there would be less of fear of detection than if he carried them himself.

THE YELLOW FEVER SCOURGE.

Several New Cases—The Inhabitants Fleeing by Hundreds.

JACKSONVILLE, Fla., Aug. 15.—Three new cases of yellow fever were reported up to 11 p.m.

The artillery began last night the work of testing the concussion theory, and the work of burning pitch, tar, sulphur, etc., will be increased. Two hundred and fifty pounds of powder have been provided, and the battery will fire a hundred rounds, continuing it through the night.

The exodus continues, and every one who can secure aid from the outside has left. Money here is beginning to be tight, as there has been such a run on the banks. Provisions also, it is feared, will be short. Vegetables are growing scarcer, as there seems no way to bring them in. Undoubtedly among the poor there will be great suffering if assistance is not rendered them.

Big fires are kept burning in all parts of the city, coal tar being freely burned. The air is full of smoke, coal tar fumes and the combined horrible odor of asafoetida, chloride of lime, sulphur, etc.

The latest intelligence from Tampa is that there are four suspicious cases of illness there and three cases of yellow fever in the house wherein Waterman died last month.

There is a case at Plaut City and Mandeville there are two.

The alarm at St. Augustine continues, and within the last forty-eight hours about two thousand persons have left the city. The feeling here is better as the disease seems to be mild.

VIA Washington.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 15.—Telegraphic advices received at mariae hospital headquarters here from Jacksonville, Fla., report four new case and one death since Monday. So far twenty-five cases and four deaths have been reported.

NEARING HOME.

The Man From Maine Tended a Grand Reception at Boston.

BOSTON, Aug. 15.—Mr. Blaine and party reached this city at 6 p.m. Monday and were driven to the Vendome hotel. Mr. Blaine appeared tired and worn, ever and again stroking his beard. The party arrived at the hotel at 6:30. From that hour on to 9 people gathered, until 10,000 were about the hotel balcony.

There was band music, fireworks and cheers. When Mr. Blaine did appear he was escorted to a balcony by Dr. Burdette, Henry C. Lodge, A. W. Beard and others. Mr. Blaine's appearance evoked tremendous cheers, which were renewed again and again. Mr. Blaine made a short speech, and thanking the great gathering for its reception, withdrew. The display of fireworks, which was exceedingly good, was then continued, a large set piece, representing a portrait of Mr. Blaine, evoking loud applause.
